GENUINE AND AUTHENTIC VOICE TO THE ASIAN COMMUNITY
The Asian Campus Tribune press was established in October of 2008 with the ambitious goal of providing a genuine and authentic voice to the Asian community in, and around, the University of Illinois campus in Champaign-Urbana.

We are proud of our talented and experienced staff and are thankful for their dedication and support of our journey to become the leading voice of the Asian campus communities around the nation.

Our Vision
Asian Campus Tribune provides a genuine and authentic voice to the Asian community in and around US campuses. We strive to promote the Asian culture and community while providing efficient means for businesses, both Asian and none, to connect to, and flourish within, our Asian community in and around campuses.

Our Pledge
We pledge to provide a professional product, treat all our stakeholders and the environment with the utmost respect and honesty, and aim to play a major positive role in our community.
